

Final Project Review

The complete application is reviewed to ensure that:

- All required files are present.
- All major features are implemented.
- The application runs successfully.
- The user interface works correctly.
- The AI functionality is integrated.
- Database operations work correctly.
- Documentation is complete.