

Frontend Organization

The frontend templates are organized as:

templates/

index.html

result.html

all_users.html

index.html

The main page collects user information.

result.html

The result page displays the generated workout plan, nutrition tip and feedback option.

all_users.html

The admin page displays registered users and their workout plans.

The original project specifies these three templates and their responsibilities.